Sabbath School Lesson No. 1
April 3, 1971
Subject: Challenging Truth for All Times
Keytext Scripture, "in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace". Ephesidus 1:17.

Lesson Outline – I. Salutation of the Apostle Paul Eph. 1: 1-3. 2. Chosen for Salvation by God. Eph. 1: 4-6. 3. Redemption Through Christ's Blood Eph. 1: 11,12. 6. Sealed With the Spirit of Promise. Eph. 1:13,14.

The word of truth Paul speaks of in Eph. 1:13,14 must here include all that Paul means in Rom. 1:16 – the whole gospel, of which he was unashamed. How did they hear this word? It was the apostles exposition of the Christian gospel based on the Scriptures of their fathers. This was Christ's own method of preaching the word of truth. See Luke 24:27. Today men are seeking for truth from many sources other than the Inspired word of God.

"The truth is more than a collection of statements of fact, which would have no salvation in them as such; the truth must finally bring us to Him who is the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6) Every noble impulse that arises in any man's soul, Christian or heathen, springs from that one source, Indeed the influence of the Holy Spirit is necessary to the effective reception of the truth. (1 Cor. 2: 12-15) . . . "It was by the confession and forsaking of sin, by earnest prayer and consecration of themselves to God, that prepared the first disciples for the outpouring of the Holy Ghost on the day of Pentecost. The same work, only in greater degree, must be done now that will prepare us for the soon return of our Lord in glory –for his own. Sabbath School 9:45 a.m.

Vacation Bible School Clinic To Be Held

A Vacation Bible School Clinic for Baptist churches in the surrounding area will be held at Liberty Baptist Church on Thursday evening, April 1, at 7. The Clinic will seek to train Vacation Bible School workers in the techniques of conducting schools and also will introduce them to new materials available.

The sessions will be held from 7 until 9 p.m. that evening and various classes for various age groups will be taught by Mr. Charles Barber, Mrs. Elton McDowell, Mrs. William D. O'Brien, Mrs. Margaret Thompson and Mrs. Harry Foster.

Film To Be Shown

A special Easter film entitled "He Lives" will be shown by Liberty Baptist Church on Thursday and Friday nights, April 8 and 9. The film will be shown in the church's parking lot at the intersection of Lee-Grant and Church Street. The film will be shown several times each night beginning at 7:30.

The film is the story of how a family found help from a deepening relationship to Jesus Christ, and it is thirty minutes in length. Families are urged to bring their children to view the film from their car's or in chairs which will be provided in the parking lot. The film is being sponsored by the Baptist Men of Liberty Baptist Church.

Which Way, America?" is the name of patriotic medley done by these top-ranked Beta Club members of Appomattox County High School. "Which way the snowballs went" Monday afternoon is the photographer's secret as Beta Club members pelted out the last of Friday's snow. Beta Club has been winner three times in a row in talent. Lions and their Ladies will hear the singers during Ladies Night, April 8. Everyone who comes to the Varsity Club Variety Show Thursday, April 8 (ACHS auditorium) at 8 p. m. can also hear them and a host of other talent. In the front row (from left): Faye Paulette, Mary Nell Doss, Susan Oliver, Jimmy Bondurant and Jane Garrette. In the second row: Gary Wooldridge, Kay Paulette, Jimmy Chandler, Becky Harvey and H. T. Nash. (Not present: Donna Smith (in hospital), Nancy Mathews and Steve Lawson. Mrs. Harry DePew is Beta Club advisor.

Appomattox Wins Again

Last week end 26 students [illegible] ACHS attended the Beta Club Convention at the John [illegible] Hotel in Richmond. The [illegible] opinion of the event is [illegible] up with one word –FUN! [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Harry DePew and Mr. McLean seemed to [illegible] enjoyed it, in fact, about the [illegible] was glad we're back in Appomattox is the hotel staff.

[illegible]day was the best day for [illegible] beginning with a pillow [illegible] ing in feathers all [illegible] hall, and ending with a [illegible] talent show.

[illegible] back to noontime Saturday, the day looked dismal for [illegible] part in the talent show. Appomattox had planned a patriotic [illegible] tary, using contemporary music, and suddenly no one [illegible] sing!

Gary Wooldridge found out [illegible] had a tonsil infection, [illegible] Lawson was drafted in the middle of the week to reinforce the bass section. Then, [illegible] Oliver (for the first time in her life, would you believe?) lost her voice. Fay Paulette had to take a cram course in songs to replace Susan. If this wasn't enough, Donna Smith hurt her already tender knee while cleaning up feathers. That finished her part in the show. Mrs. DePew called in Mary Nell Doss to sing soprano in Donna's place. Mary Nell learned six songs in no more than two hours.

Show time found the Appomattox spectators sitting tensely waiting as they opened with "Which Way America?" In about eight minutes, the presentation was over, and whispered comments said "It couldn't have been better!" From then on, all we could do was survey the competition and hope.

Something was going for us, for after what seemed hours, the judges announced Appomattox had taken first place over Patrick Henry by one point.

Just for the record, this is the third time in a row that Appomattox has won first place, and we hope to do it again next year.

One thing is certain – if there is the same feeling of pride and cooperation, the same atmosphere of closeness in other Beta conventions as it has it has been in this one, there's no way we can lose.

For a final word, here's thanks to Mr. and Mrs. DePew and Mr. McLean for taking a bunch of kids to Richmond; we couldn't have had better sponsors. Also, congratulations to all the people in the talent show. You deserve to be Number One!

JORDAN BAPTIST

"The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul." Psalm 121:7

Both our services Sunday were well attended. At 11 a.m. Rev. Elliott preached a very inspiring sermon, after which we partook of the Lord's Supper. At 7 p.m. the Junior Choir was in charge of the services. This was a combination choir festival and talent program by the youth of our neighbor churches. During the morning services there was a memorial to Deacon W. B. Jones who passed away two years ago March 21. This was in the form of a solo sung by Mrs. Catherine Fowler and played by Miss Lelia Austin. The selection was titled "Going Over Yonder!" The song was requested by his wife and children.

The Senior Choir will appear on program at the Bethel Baptist Church on Sunday, April 14, at 3 p.m.

The Usher Board will be held Mon., April 5, at 7 p.m.

Jrs. Tour Community College

'BLACK STUDIES' ON VEA PROGRAM

Eight Appomattox teachers, members of the Virginia Education Association, have preregistered to attend a regional instruction meeting on "Black Studies in Virginia Schools" with Dr. Edgar A. Toppin, professor of American history at Virginia State College in Petersburg as the discussion leader.

The meeting will be held Monday, April 5 at Brookville High School, Campbell county from 4 -5:45 p.m. More than 350 teachers from 12 area school divisions are expected to attend.

At the regional instruction meeting, Dr. Toppin will discuss how ethnic studies can help put today's problems in clearer perspective, how they can help dispel distorted notions that undergird prejudices and how they can highlight the contributions of minorities to America. Dr. Toppin is an author of five related books and producer of a 30-lesson ETV course, Americans from Africa: a History.
